How is the insurance for photovoltaic panels charged

Overview

As we've just explained, the vast majority of insurers consider solar panels to be part of the fabric of the building, so they would not incur an extra charge on your policy. What is solar panel insurance & how does it work?

Solar panel insurance shields homeowners from financial losses due to damage, theft, or other unforeseen events affecting their solar energy systems. Let's dive into solar panel insurance in the UK and see how it can keep your roof (and your bank account) happy. What is not covered by solar panel insurance?

Does homeowners insurance cover solar panels?

Usually, homeowner's solar insurance packages cover all types of solar panels: monocrystalline, polycrystalline PV, or thin film solar panels. The insurance protects your solar rooftop against common risks, such as fire, hail, lightning, storm damage, or theft. The claim limit for solar panel coverage varies depending on the policy.

How much does solar panel home insurance cost?

The annual cost of solar panel home insurance ranges from £118 to £152, which seems reasonable compared to the potential risks. Once you decide to install solar panels, inform your home insurer. Solar panels contribute to rebuilding your home's value, so it's important to list them in the insurance coverage.

Do you need commercial solar panel insurance?

Comprehensive commercial solar panel insurance protects the investment if a business owns the panels. When solar panels are leased, the responsibility for insurance typically falls on the panel owner. The next key point revolves around the heightened liability risks associated with commercial solar panel systems.

Are solar panels included in buildings insurance?

Most providers include solar panels in buildings insurance, treating them as part of the fabric of your home, just like the doors, floors, and walls. However, these policies can be insufficiently comprehensive, unless you pay extra. This means you can often attain a better level of cover if you get solar panel insurance separately.

Will my insurance cover a photovoltaic system?

Contact your insurer and ask whether your policy includes a photovoltaic system, preferably before you have the panels installed. Even if you're absolutely sure you'll be covered, you still need to notify your insurer.
