Solar Sales Job, is this an MLM or scam? : r/recruitinghell

The other way that solar becomes an MLM is because there is a heavy emphasis on recruiting, especially if you are a sales team leader. The more people you have selling Solar, the more money you will make as a team leader. Your manager will make more money, and so on. In most solar companies, there are a lot of hands in everyone's pay.

Solar Panel Scam in NJ : r/newjersey

Solar salespeople will ask to see your bill because when you convert to solar they average your electric bill for the last 12 months and that is what you pay. They also check to see what your usage is to make sure they install enough panels to produce the output you need. Probably not a scam if it was a legit company like Sunrun.

Has anyone bought solar panels from Alibaba? Any recommended ...

Seems like a no brainer, since 90% of solar panels are made in China anyway - was considering having an installer put them and balance of system in, but think the prices are really great now. Alibaba is fine for small, inexpensive purchases but pay the extra money for legit solar panels. Even if they're made in China the quality-control is Sunrun 0 cost solar. Legit or scam? : r/solar

Sunrun makes their money by paying for the solar panels, pocketing the 30% tax credit from the government, and then leasing them to you for a "low" monthly fee on a 20 year lease. Over those 20 years of payments, you will have paid full price for ...

Solar energy is rising in popularity. So are the scams

Did a salesperson knock on your door and promise free rooftop solar panels at no cost to you? Or say you'll never have to pay another electricity bill because government programs, grants, or rebates cover your solar installation? It's likely a scam. While there are some government-funded solar programs for households that qualify, "going solar" isn't free. Honest ...

Are Solar Panels a good investment? : r/phinvest

So, the answer is yes, some solar panels can reach that in a day with clear skies. In my experience, we installed a 3.8 KW system and it really does reach the peak at around 11 am - 1 pm But to get the average saving you can get monthly, first we need to know the weather you have for a year, so that it can be calculated and so on, and actually
